RE: Navajo Nation Presidency Candidacy Support

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to offer my support for Myron Lizer in his candidacy for President of the Navajo Nation. Over the years, I have had the opportunity to work with Mr. Lizer on issues affecting tribal nations across Indian Country. Through those interactions, I have come to know him as a leader who is not afraid to tackle difficult challenges, advocate for his people, and pursue opportunities that create real economic growth for tribal communities.

As Chairman of the Mandan, Hidatsa, and Arikara Nation, I understand the importance of leadership that extends beyond day-to-day government operations. Tribal leaders must be willing to think strategically about the future of our Nations—how we create jobs, develop infrastructure, strengthen energy independence, expand business opportunities, and position our people for long-term success. Mr. Lizer has consistently demonstrated that vision throughout his service as Vice President of the Navajo Nation and as a successful businessman. He understands that tribal sovereignty is not simply a political concept—it is an economic responsibility. Strong tribal nations are built through economic opportunity, self-sufficiency, responsible resource development, and the ability to create prosperity for future generations. Those principles are reflected in the priorities he has outlined for the Navajo Nation, including economic sovereignty, job creation, infrastructure development, and restoring confidence in tribal government. Leaders who understand both government and business bring a valuable perspective to those efforts. Mr. Lizer's experience in both areas positions him well to lead during a time when tribal nations must continue asserting their place in regional and national economic development.

I believe Mr. Lizer possesses the experience, determination, and vision necessary to help guide the Navajo Nation forward and continue strengthening its position as a leader in Indian Country. I wish Myron, his family, and the Navajo people all the best during this election season.

Respectfully,

Mark N. Fox
